wei ladies, i don finally come computer. my darling FC, wei eh...I will advice u to go buy pens, calendars etc from bepanda market oh i beg. E go better pass any CRAB/garbage from steering commitee. Ladies I know everyone has commented on this but i must add my voice. The GJ magazine was THRASH. Some of us bought it so we can tell the story. Jesus Wept. Chia. Even the students magazine was up to power. The MAgazine team spent the whole one year worrying about the competition from the FS book. The Magazine is DISGRACEFUL. For all those who purchased, it is time to BURN them before opsans, shesans, pemexans bobans, lay thier eyes on them. no me oh. what embarrassment. The same lady in charge of the magazine was the same one who reffered to us and i quote " A group of women here have a gift to present". God punish her. I am sure u all know who she is by now.

All in all, the GJ was very disorganized. Nothing to write home about except for all the ex-students one had not seen for so many years who made this event a success for me. Everyone was looking radiant, beautiful, extra-fine and u name it. The joy of seeing one another and catching up did it for me.

Ok so my most dissapointing and frustrating moment which i must recount. As we worked hard to put together this FS book, the principal of lourdes college sis Ndidi had been indulged to help us garther stories from the current students to help complete this project. Sis Ndidi refused complaining that she didnot see the need for the book and that she worried it was competing wiht GJ magazine. First of all, i had refused that we contact her oh,.....but everyone around me as usual wanted to give her benefit of doubt. we however completed the last 7 batches with thier class list, which had been posted on this forum sometime ago. So we get to GJ and sis Ndidi request that we reserve her 20 copies. Then she changes to 10 copies. I told the team that the demand for these books is high. Why dont we sell them and then ship sis Ndidis own later. Again, everyone said, no let us give her since she has asked.

La Marj went up to her and told her we had her books ready. she changed her #'s to 5 copies. After my refusal to go present the 5 books to her, LA Marj garthered some lovely form ones to help carry the books to si Ndidi. They got there and that lady, refused she didnot want them any more. Lord Jesus, I almost fainted with anger. Lord knows if i had gone up there, i would have pulled her veil and delivered to her. The cheek of her . How dare sis Ndidi? how dare she? Yes ladies, i could let everything else pass but not this and sis Ndidi will be getting a personal email from me. Like God will have it, those 5 copies sold in less than 30 minutes before we departed campus. GOd dont like ugly. Thanks to the ugly hearts of the steering commitee and its members every activity at the GJ was UGLY. The GJ magazine, the Gala, all the events of the day...everything was.

I will like to commend the Lourdes students for thier angelic voices during the mass. They outdid themselves with thier singing and thumps up to thier magazine as well.

To my darling classmates, i was so proud of us all. Thanks to you all for making me laugh and relax this past few days cause i buy ticket nah true true for come see wuna. Man wei e no be get classmates surely regretted attending.

GJ has come and gone. Steering commitee has come and gone. What is here to stay...LESA. It will never go.

Live from Foncha street bamenda. Only the thought of all the ugliness is making me really sick. True true sick.

Safe journey to all those travelling back home

E fine make i tok all my tok this week before we move out of this topic and then pipo feel say i just want find na palava. Weh God, please help me i beg. This my vex go finish around Tuesday for 5 pm so make una just bear with me.

For those who have the Jubilee magazine, you will notice that it was mentioned that the head of the MC committee was Mrs Emilia Chindo. It had pained me before that our president was to be the MC but i thought what the heck, at least she still represents. Now i think of it...no, let me not think, let me stick to facts lest my statements are miscontrued as they so often are.

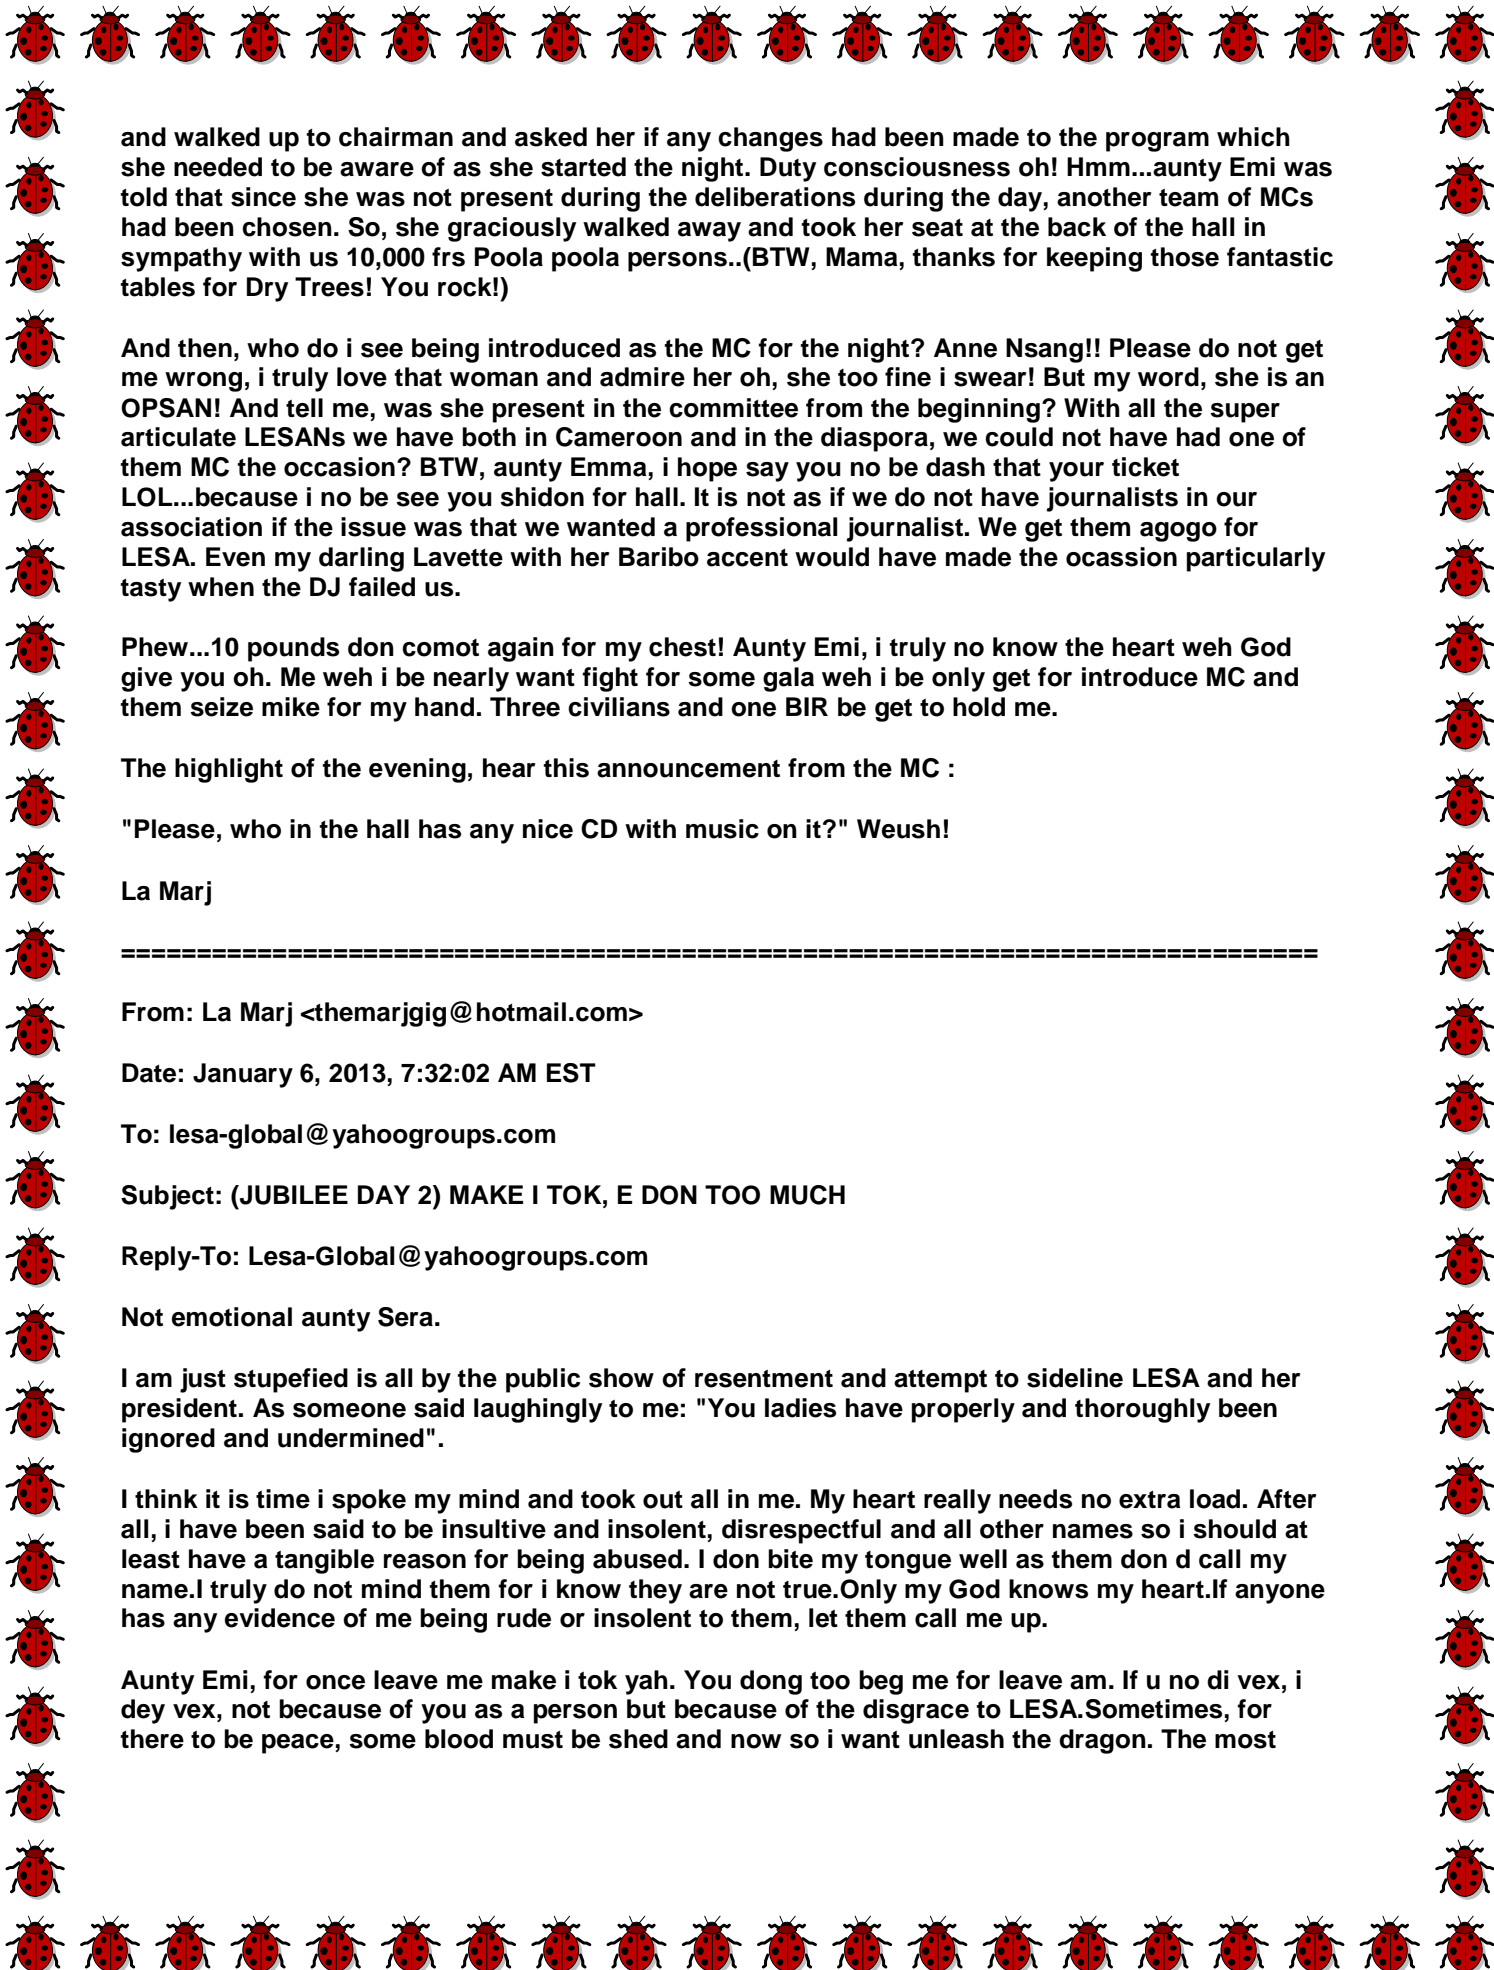

Well, this is a nice little story right here you know...let me narrate:

On Friday evening at the gala, i saw our softest and prettiest Aunty Emma Osong and Aunty Namsie Nasah (BTW aunty Namsie, that ur dimple them fit kill man) standing in the queue like all others. They had come in early since aunty Emilia had co opted them into the MC committee. You all know how uncomfortable women gala shoes are especially those of us who hardly wear heels and do so just for initial effect to walk in elegantly and sit down painfully.

We all know aunty Emma with her softness and faultless use of the queen's language na lol. So, aunty Em softly went up to the Gala Gatekeeper and told her that since she was MC for the night, she didn't think she needed a ticket and would love to give her ticket to some unfortunate ex-student who could not get one. Ah ah...gate keeper told aunty Emma that she would have to check that information and get back to her. Etatsienne them, for pays we no know softness i beg.

So, when aunty Emma told me, i advised she and aunty Namsie to hold their tickets very close to their chests as i believed they would not be doing any MCying that night. How right i was when we got in after almost two hours of queuing at the gate. I still have blisters from my fake Loubous to show for it. Fake thing them no fine i swear!

So, here comes my gracious aunty Emi who after having been slighted again during the day events, by the committee handing over the Mcship to someone else, she still gathered courage and walked up to chairman and asked her if any changes had been made to the program which she needed to be aware of as she started the night. Duty consciousness oh! Hmm...aunty Emi was told that since she was not present during the deliberations during the day, another team of MCs had been chosen. So, she graciously walked away and took her seat at the back of the hall in sympathy with us 10,000 frs Poola poola persons..(BTW, Mama, thanks for keeping those fantastic tables for Dry Trees! You rock!)

And then, who do i see being introduced as the MC for the night? Anne Nsang!! Please do not get me wrong, i truly love that woman and admire her oh, she too fine i swear! But my word, she is an OPSAN! And tell me, was she present in the committee from the beginning? With all the super articulate LESANs we have both in Cameroon and in the diaspora, we could not have had one of them MC the occasion? BTW, aunty Emma, i hope say you no be dash that your ticket LOL...because i no be see you shidon for hall. It is not as if we do not have journalists in our association if the issue was that we wanted a professional journalist. We get them agogo for LESA. Even my darling Lavette with her Baribo accent would have made the occasion particularly tasty when the DJ failed us.

Phew...10 pounds don comot again for my chest! Aunty Emi, i truly no know the heart weh God give you oh. Me weh i be nearly want fight for some gala weh i be only get for introduce MC and them seize mike for my hand. Three civilians and one BIR be get to hold me.

The highlight of the evening, hear this announcement from the MC :

"Please, who in the hall has any nice CD with music on it?" Weush!

Not emotional aunty Sera.

I am just stupefied is all by the public show of resentment and attempt to sideline LESA and her president. As someone said laughingly to me: "You ladies have properly and thoroughly been ignored and undermined".

I think it is time i spoke my mind and took out all in me. My heart really needs no extra load. After all, i have been said to be insulting and insolent, disrespectful and all other names so i should at least have a tangible reason for being abused. I don bite my tongue well as them don d call my name.I truly do not mind them for i know they are not true.Only my God knows my heart.If anyone has any evidence of me being rude or insolent to them, let them call me up.

Aunty Emi, for once leave me make i tok yah. You dong too beg me for leave am. If u no di vex, i dey vex, not because of you as a person but because of the disgrace to LESA.Sometimes, for there to be peace, some blood must be shed and now so i want unleash the dragon. The most ludicrous and insulting thing i have heard is what people say that you manipulate me. What an insult to my brain!

What was my fault? The fact that i told the steering committee members not to send emails to the LESA forum without going through the National president who was our representative. What was wrong in that? Could a chairman not have been chosen from any of the stakeholders? And if the chairman chosen was a parent, would he/she have had access to our LESAN forum? What is so wrong in working with the LESA president? Why work with LESANS individually but not through the president?

And if the committee wanted to reach out to ex-students ,why did they not create their own forum? When i started creating the website (www.ourladyoflourdescollegeex-students.org) last year, one of the members asked me to stop coz she said the committee was creating its own website. I told her my website has its own purpose. Why did they not use theirs to reach their own students instead of stealing email addresses from global one by one and forwarding emails.

First of all, to think that in all other schools the ex-student body leads the jubilee celebrations(his was practiced in Lourdes till ten years back)but for us, LESA was said to be a stakeholder with the president being the head of the MC committee, which was even disrespectfully refused her throughout the jubilee celebrations. But we thank God for that, you will not be associated with the parts that went wrong.

That not being enough, LESA used its funds, time and talents to reach out to as many ex-students as possible, a move which made the jubilee as well attended as it was but still....make i no tok.

Again, do we want to say that of all the ladies that Lourdes has graduated in 43 years, that about 2,500 graduates later,the same person who led the school through the Ruby celebrations ten years ago in 2003 is the same person still leading ten years later in the Golden? What happened to the other dynamic ladies along the way? What happened to sustainability and empowerment? Why do we call Paul Biya's name when in our own communities act the same?

No matter how talented or dynamic anyone is, if you do not make room for others, or teach others, continuity will not be ensured.

My dear LESANS, i speak as a bridge between the old and the young. I plea with the older ones to learn to let go and the younger ones to learn from the older ones without shunning them. We must learn to work together and give credit when due. We must learn to respect each other and understand that we must agree to disagree and know that our relationships should not be affected by our disagreements.

This whole jubilee thing has opened my eyes a lot and i saw resentment and rage on faces which could not be contained just because of ego. I now understand why three years ago, in 2009 in Kumbo, one of these ladies came and met me and convinced me to ask the ladies not to revote aunty Emi as president. That was because they had their game plan already and wanted to run the Golden Jubilee celebrations. And without even knowing aunty Emi then, i had seen her dynamism and outrightly refused.

I saw how our national president was openly spited and despised but it is in the midst of such adversity that the strong thrive! Aunty Emi, i respect you for standing strong and being the peaceful person you are.

Because of the LESAN leadership, we had the best come together in the Fireside and LESA receptions. I don't drink and dance so today I am still tipsy. Sometime na that alcohol sef don give me high today for tok my bottom belle.

Because of the LESAN leadership, we have a masterpiece in the Fireside book which has helped cover the disgrace of the below standard jubilee magazine.

I will never stop standing for the truth and what is right. I will never stop supporting my current president and whoever the next one will be. And aunty Emi, if I catch you anywhere near Lourdes 60 years celebrations me and you go get problem too.

Despite the fact that LESA was deliberately spited and ignored by LESAN members of the steering committee,(some of them National Exco members) we stood strong and we gave colour to the jubilee. How beautiful it was to be in my blue uniform yesterday and to be recognised as an ex-student of that college.

And how emotional I felt when I handed that book to my papa Cardinal and he said :
"Marja...Marja, I am proud of you"

So, I will definitely say, I AM PROUD TO BE A LESAN. The politics and polemics will end.

Sisters, LESA is not about segregation and class as some people try to make it. It is about sisterhood and love. That is why our national blue has the same simple Yoruba style to show that when we come together, we dissolve the boundaries and are all equal.

I REST MY CASE.

Chei...four days without Pa Ayuk, I need a very hefty dose of Pmycine to calm me down. I be bayangi, two days without, I dey get withdrawal symptoms. Make I go.

Awazele,

I don't have time to go around cybercafes to craft up emails to you when I have internet at home and at work and on my phone. Whenever I have had to address you, I have done so from my email address. if your research on IP addresses points to cyber cafes around yaounde, let me know. Please print the IP Address check for all of us to see, mapping me to Cynthia Ambe, because even I am curious.

I have a feeling that you are wanting to pin me down in a smear campaign, character assassination that is not lesa-related. No problem. In addition, you want me to help you find Cynthia Ambe. That is not my job. Your mail below shows speculation. Come up with concrete IP Address matches. Some other person has beef with you and you choose to take it out on me for whatever reason. Why didn't you post the mail that Cynthia Ambe sent to you? Knowing you, If you had pinned her down, with concrete proof, you would have revealed her. so please go ahead and match the IP addresses to show that I am Cynthia Ambe. I don't know what I have done to you that is so grave that every other week, you have to write about me. Can you just forget about me? When it comes to you, take it that I don't exist. I am not as UNIQUE as you are, or pretty as you are or have the BLESSINGS that you have. I am NOT in your league...so please leave me alone. I am NOT CYNTHIA AMBE. And you Cynthia Ambe, I hope you are not Awazele playing pranks on each other.

Awazele, you mentioned email names that I got from global. to be honest with you, half of those email addresses, I don't know who these people are. so I really don't know what made you draw this conclusion in linking me as Cynthia Ambe. it's ludicrous.

Why you continue to believe that I was a one time Lady Gold or closely related to lady Gold beats me. the 3 LGs have been revealed. which one of them do you think I was remotely close to or could impose upon? and if LG chose to moderate you, how does that concern me?

You are being moderated on lesan@yahoogroups.com because we (moderators) got so many complaints about the vile, anger and hatred that come with your emails. In the bid for respecting others even if you disagree, nothing gives another human being the right to insult another human being. We recognize our mistakes and we seek ways to change. it is not fair that you continue to insult and cyber-bully others, hence the reason why your mails have been modertated and will continue to be moderated on lesan@yahoogroups.com. you have other forums that you can spew your bile but not on lesan@yahoogroups.com. If there is a change in your email style, where you start respecting human beings even if you disagree, then rest assured your mails will go through.

I thank you most sincerely for all your insults on my person. God made me, not man. Like I said, I cannot even come close to your league. Let me stay in my horizontal and vertically challenged position with heavy BODY MASS. Let me stay with my ugly features and continue to be the wolf in sheep's clothing, coward, devil, hypocrite you purport that I am. I don't want to have anything to do with you, or come close to you. I've unsubscribed from lesa-global to get away from the negativity and persecution you constantly and consistently hit on me. Enough is enough. Look for another target. Please don't follow me to my private email address. Kindly leave me alone.

I need to hear from her. Sis. Marja aka LG, pleasee use your PRO prowess to find her me.

I cannot believe what I am reading.

Segregation within lesa, enmity, resentment, hate, stratification....all these things is what's plaguing our little community.

Is there any end in sight. I really thought this saga would be somehow resolved with members coming on blended knees and contrite heart ready for a resolution to our plagues?

Why was my Namesake ignored why? Why was the National President of Lesa ignored? So what is our next move? Does that mean the the steering committee also disregard the cardinal ancient the pope and that is why they were allowed to advertise within the flopped GJ magazine thher upcoming USA AGM? How did this happen? I smell a dead rat oh...have we been fooled? Hah! God forbid oh... When I start reading emails like this from Sis Marja aka LG withhow disappointed she is I can't help but wonder.

I am at a loss for words. Well I will sit and wait patiently for more news . I don tire this palava..... a` suivre...

Emilexy dear,

Let the spirit of the FS continue ohhh. I hear noise inside my Ngumba palace sotey, I jump wake up say make I troway salute.

Ahhh Ahhh, as Banyangi di talk, we thank God ohhh.

My brain is still undergoing maintenance.

We thank God for a wonderful event that COULD have been better IF???

I can only say God, you alone know how to teach us even in events like this.

When I browsed through the hall and saw the Golden Jubilee President and National president of LESA was hidden in one lungu part(hideout) of the congress hall at the exit, my heart SANK and I left the event at that point.

The embarassment and humiliation I felt on her behalf overwhelmed me but despite all of that, she was the same woman with the charisma of a DOVE and ever so beautiful.

The shame is on all of us. Like my shesan brother said, you lesans are BIG fools. How could your National president be treated like that and you all could not take the micro and recognize her?

Really??????? Without an Organized association like LESA, we can all agree that, it is just IMPOSSIBLE to get Ex students of any school together and that is why schools have Alumni associations.

Everyone noticed ohhh.How could anyone be an enemy of their own hard work?. My special apology to a a very special "small sister" I stumbled on while heading out of the hall. I was too upset that I vented on her and asked how the National president of Lesa could not be mentioned or be given a conspicuous spot on the High Table?. A two time president for that matter?

Country fashion dey in different dimensions oh. We must continue to look up to heaven and pray to God.

I hate to misconstrue anyone or lose respect for anyone I hold in high esteem but ahhh, Yes, Our President was DISRESPECTED. Sorry if anyone feels different but if there is another name for such UNCOUTH treatment of the head of an Association as BIG as LESA on a DAY when we were supposed to showcase our talents, I beg wuna tell me. IT is a A SHAME.

From the time we were babies, our parents cherished our milestones and that is why we celebrate bdays till we die. At 50, we had an opportunity to showcase talents we had but again, we managed to showcase spite and resentment and more disregard for leadership.

God help us. I bet u, no one will be interested to run for National office but sisters, stay tight and make LESA stronger.

Again, all efforts made to accommodate us and entertain us was fully appreciated. It took hard work and quite a lot of head ache and I for that, I say thanks.

To the weary, I say Real UNITY, LOVE and SERVICE.

My special report will follow not out of spite but for a better tomorrow. To president Emilia Chindo, you have earned my RESPECT in a special way and I admire you even more. You are a woman of many layers and HIGHLY favored. Remain beautiful for your heart is in the right place.

Awaz,

Happy New Year to you and baby Kindzeka. Mami I only glad say we fire side book di go for pope and we shall all be blessed. Bad heart no fine. Na only God go help we all. We need people like you to continue fighting for us. One day the truth shall come out.

You should have seen the faces of the Incers when the final communique came out after the two days deliberation. There were about five of them sitting near me. The communique was read immediately after mass in the the presence of the Cardinal, Archbishop, the Fon of Mankon, parents, Lourdes students and a crowd of over one thousand people.

The president Emilia Chindo has done a wonderful job and we all know how she has been undermined during this jubilee. She is a strong and calm lady and I admire her for that. Lets continue to pray.

Guess what ? I met your mom and two sisters . Your mama still look good after giving birth to eight children. I ask am plenty questions about you. She say the only thing she fit tell me na say you di always fight for tell the truth. Hope you take her genes, make stress for Etas no stress you plenty.

Aunty Anna Ngu .

Mommy Sero.....

I seriously think this will be OUR ATTITUDE going forward

GET BEHIND SATAN.....that comes in different GUISES to steal our JOY and take away our sweet accomplishments as we CELEBRATE.

A FIRESIDE BOOK, that was ALL INCLUSIVE of ex-students including the likes of the Yvonne Barah who did not put the party on their program and did not have the courage to show up at it---their stories published in its entirety,with even small tributes from the likes of LaMarj.....amongst the many others....a clean hearted, BAR NONE, original STANDARD,.....executed with such FINE CLASS, that had to be CELEBRATED BY ALL.....

First Sr Ndidi Anonzie refused to write a forward in the book, refused to allow the students to send stories for the book, refused to even give the names of the class lists/ and batches.....

SHOCKS pick them she and ALL when them see

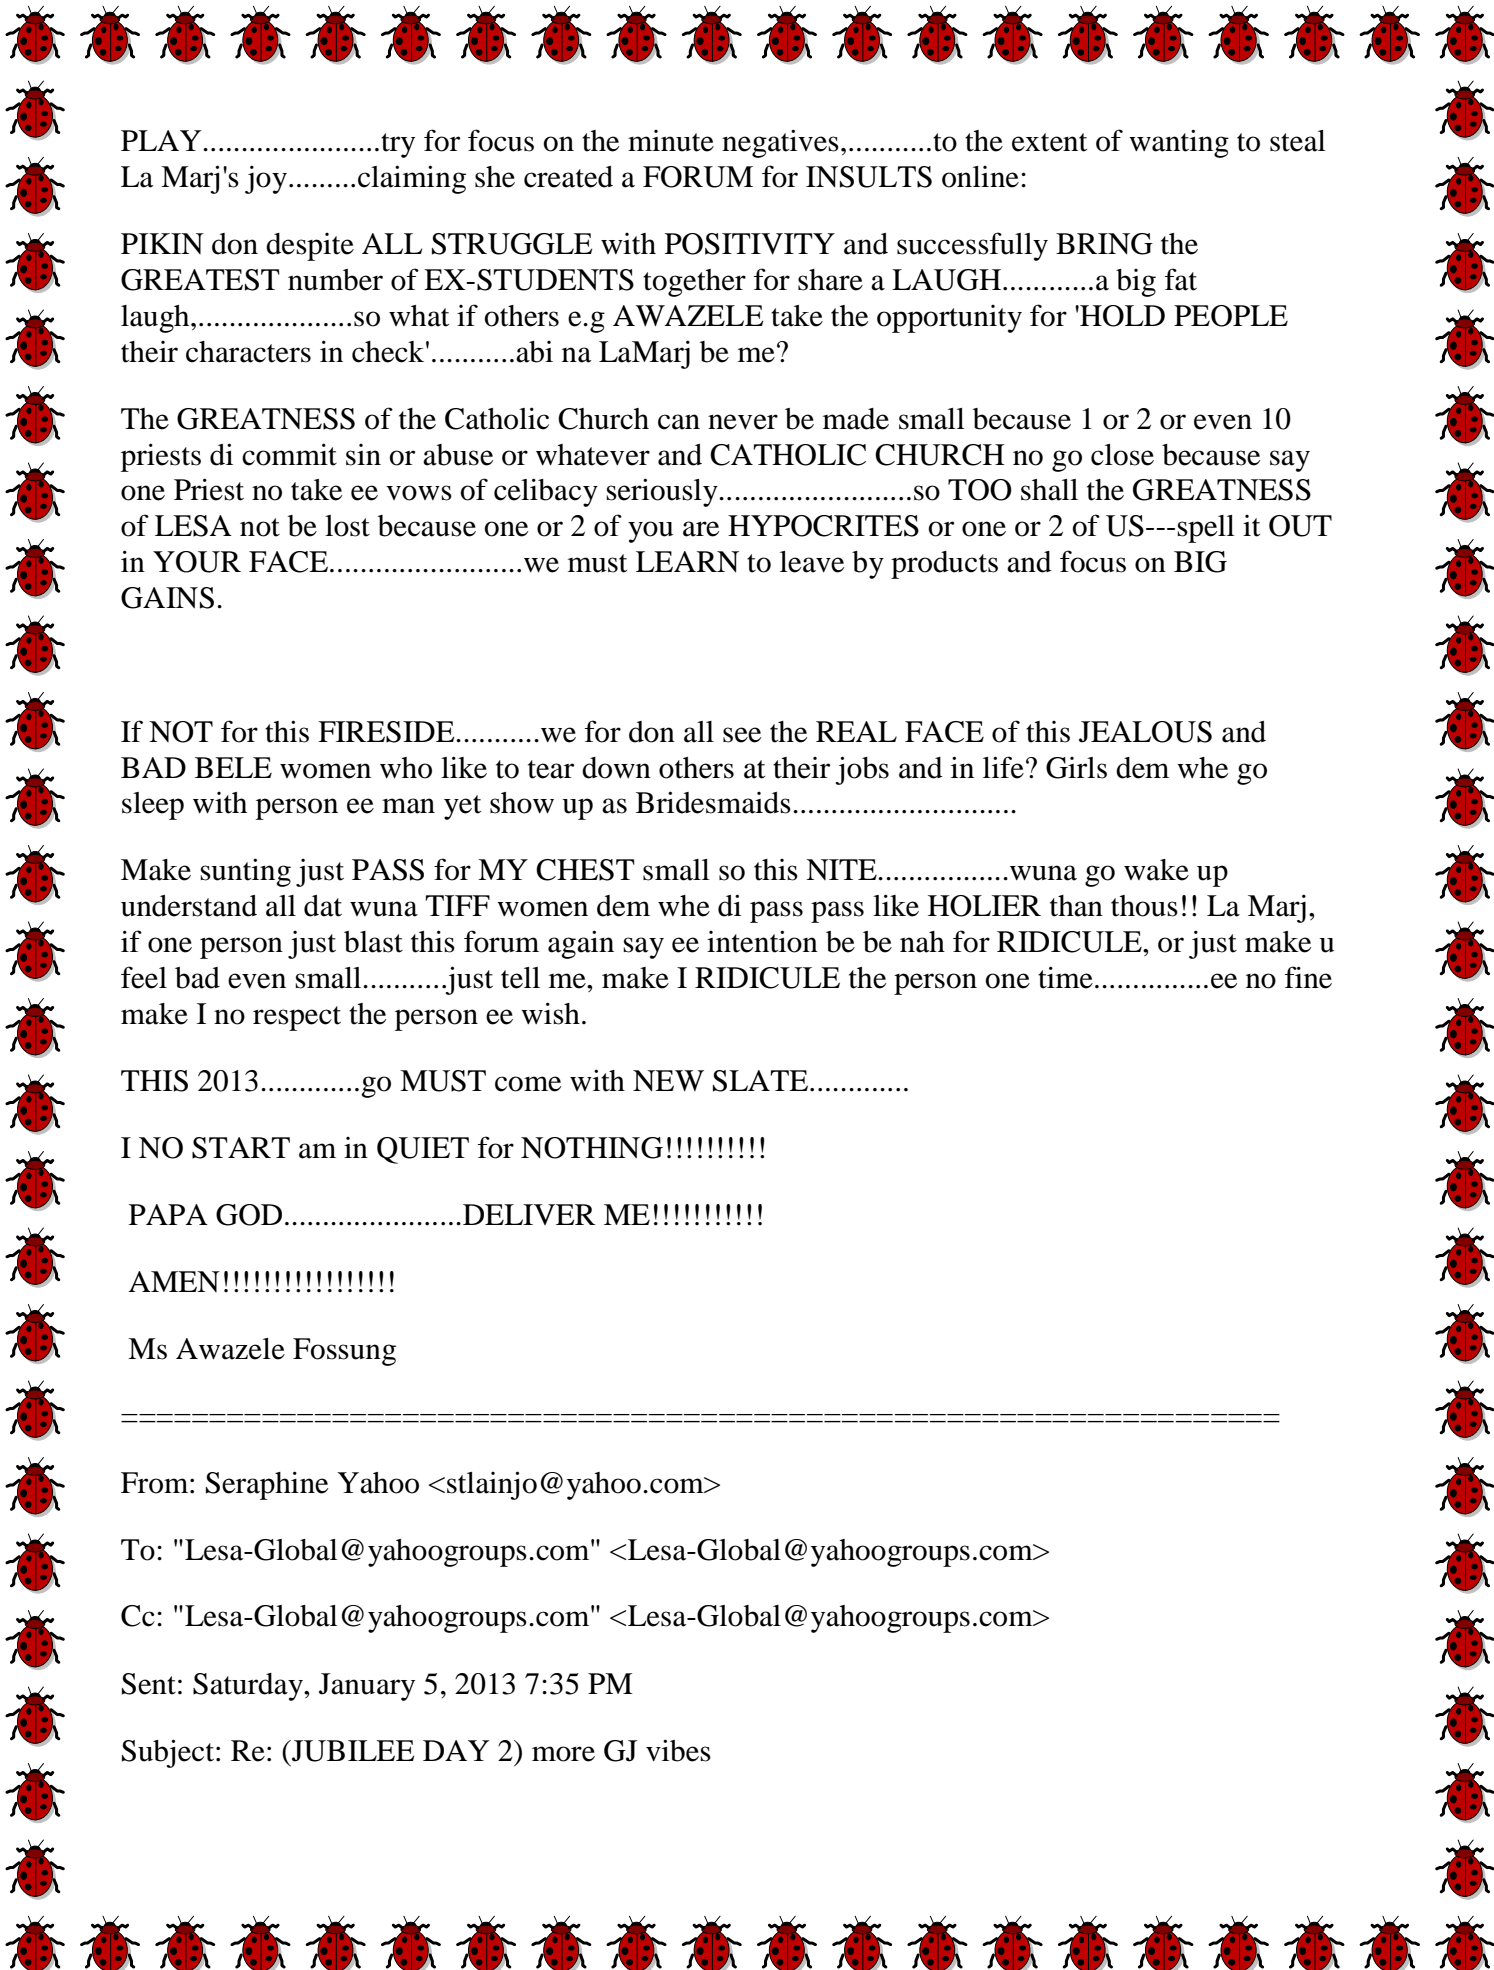

- 1) The QUALITY of the work
- 2) Forward by His Eminence Christian Cardinal Tumi
- 3) Preface by His Grace Arch-Bishop Cornelius Esua
- 4) Reflections from Sr Nuala n Sr Mary Neville

A BOOK that should have been CELEBRATED as the Masterpiece which it is, for the Lourdes Girl for GENERATIONS infinitum to read with pride and LOVE.....nah ee dem know for do ONLY what as women dem know for do BEST:.....TEAR DOWN, DOWN

PLAY.....try for focus on the minute negatives,.....to the extent of wanting to steal La Marj's joy.....claiming she created a FORUM for INSULTS online:

PIKIN don despite ALL STRUGGLE with POSITIVITY and successfully BRING the GREATEST number of EX-STUDENTS together for share a LAUGH.....a big fat laugh,.....so what if others e.g AWAZELE take the opportunity for 'HOLD PEOPLE their characters in check'.....abi na LaMarj be me?

The GREATNESS of the Catholic Church can never be made small because 1 or 2 or even 10 priests di commit sin or abuse or whatever and CATHOLIC CHURCH no go close because say one Priest no take ee vows of celibacy seriously.....so TOO shall the GREATNESS of LESA not be lost because one or 2 of you are HYPOCRITES or one or 2 of US---spell it OUT in YOUR FACE.....we must LEARN to leave by products and focus on BIG GAINS.

If NOT for this FIRESIDE.....we for don all see the REAL FACE of this JEALOUS and BAD BELE women who like to tear down others at their jobs and in life? Girls dem whe go sleep with person ee man yet show up as Bridesmaids.....

Make sunting just PASS for MY CHEST small so this NITE.....wuna go wake up understand all dat wuna TIFF women dem whe di pass pass like HOLIER than thous!! La Marj, if one person just blast this forum again say ee intention be be nah for RIDICULE, or just make u feel bad even small.....just tell me, make I RIDICULE the person one time.....ee no fine make I no respect the person ee wish.

THIS 2013.....go MUST come with NEW SLATE.....

I NO START am in QUIET for NOTHING!!!!!!!!!!

PAPA GOD.....DELIVER ME!!!!!!!!!!

AMEN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Just unbelievable. Events are moving rather fast and confusing. What is going on? Golden Jubilee is about celebrating accomplishments and milestones. Instead what am I reading. When good things get to us they become tarnished and poisoned . Why, why Lord, why .But you know what? There is no place for dirt and evil in your kingdom and so we reject all negativity; hate, envy, jealousy. You destroyed all evil and gave us life when you died and resurrected. We claim goodness.we choose success. We shall triumph with you. "Get behind you satan", The Lord said.

Meeting with CARDINAL and AB.....first of all those INCERs dem no attend.....all them be want do in pretend say them di look forward, na for go Cameroon go pass pass make dem no DRIVE dem and so make their bamboo supporters for Cameroon fit fit them into the program.

We will just come back to the same issues in the US and if LAW COURT nova refuse these girls that trademark, dem no go let go.....after all, now what do they have at stake in Cameroon, when Golden Jubilee come pass.

Watch this space.....

When I talk, them say, I too talk.....till the LESA world as ONE, with the support of the CATHOLIC CHURCH at home an abroad show these girls thing whe dem want, dem no go see oh!!!

BadBele woman dem, no make Presi Ma Emi MC for yesterday's dance as supposed, because them think say na that one go make ee less of a loved, respected and cherished President--WUSAI!!!!

We go see for Tubah 2013.....Golden Jubi.....what??? No be ee don pass??

I get on FB, & I see beautiful pics that brings some memories back. I decide to get back on here to c if I can catch a glimpse of some more pics just to see how the very much anticipated GJ went down & try to b active. Well, the mails are toooooo many & I obviously won't catch up, but the few I've read seems like there is obviously too much politics going on. It is very hot for me in here right now & they say if it's too hot for u, then leave, which I will in a minute, & get back when the temperatures cool off. However, I have some questions for my benefit. Is LESA split?

From the mails I been reading it seems there's a difference btw. LESA, LESANS & "INC" or so, I know INC means incorporated. But WHO is WHO? There is more to this than my plain eye can see. So if 1 wants to join an Ex student or Alumnae assoc., what r they joining if there r all this fractions which I had no idea existed in the 1st place. Is this the main forum for all Lourdes ex-students?? It seems there r others??? I may b wrong. Forgive me if this was already addressed long time ago, just asking in case I had 2 b a member & who is any1 contacting anyways? I'm even afraid @ this point though, but any answers would help.

My 2 cents now, there is definitely some bright red blood & dark red blood lying around if u know what I mean. Some people have been hurt. The power of life & death lies in the tongue. We need to tame the words that come out of our mouths. What u make happen for others will happen for u. So I think it is important to keep a positive attitude, regardless of the circumstance. It is a very hard thing to do for us b/c we r only human, but only God can change a person, so we need to ask for the companion of the HS that Christ left with us, to transform us all & help us b better people.

*PS I DO NOT even know who is on what side, so I am talking generally. I may have no say as I have not been on here, but I just thought I say smth. as I can't c and just b quiet, when I know deep down, my 2 cents may help some1 out there.

REMAIN BLESSED

CARINE
